

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – April 14, 2025

The board of directors of Joshua House Recovery Ministries is pleased to announce the hiring of Jim Heuving, CFRE, as their new full-time executive director effective April 14, 2025.

Jim Heuving brings over 10 years of leadership experience in nonprofit management with a deep commitment to faith-driven initiatives.

“I am honored to join Joshua House as their new leader and am eager to collaborate with the board, staff and donors to expand our reach and deepen our impact in the Fraser valley,” said Jim Heuving.

“We are thrilled to welcome Jim Heuving as our new executive director at Joshua House. We believe his leadership will bring about meaningful changes that will benefit those we serve and those yet to experience our community of care. We further wish to thank Jane Cooper who has served as our Acting Executive Director over the past seven months helping guide our nonprofit through transition.” said Randy Hind, board chair.

About Jim Heuving

Jim Heuving has spent the past two decades leading and serving in churches and nonprofit organizations in BC dedicated to community transformation. His leadership experience includes roles at Pacific Community Church, Cloverdale Community Kitchen, Food for the Hungry, and Blue Sea Foundation.

Jim came to faith while growing up in the Christian Reformed tradition (Ottawa) that led to theological studies at Redeemer University (BA) and Calvin Theological Seminary (MDiv). He later transitioned to the Christian Missionary Alliance, serving as an Executive Pastor at Pacific Community Church (Surrey) while completing a Doctor of Ministry degree at Luther Seminary (St. Paul, MN).

Married to Monica since 1987, they have two sons, Eric (2003) and Iain (2006). Outside of work, Jim finds balance and camaraderie in paddling and racing outrigger canoes, competing in races across British Columbia with his team. With a heart for service and a vision for impact, Jim is eager to build on Joshua House’s legacy and expand its reach in transforming lives.

About Joshua House

Founded in 2004, Joshua House Recovery Ministries has been at the forefront of transforming lives with love, compassion, and unwavering support. The program operates in two main locations, The Creek Campus located in the mountains above Chilliwack, BC, and eight transition houses located throughout Abbotsford, BC. The ministry currently provides care for approximately 105 men in residence.

For more information, visit: JoshuaHouse.ca or call 604-858-7279